☐ Blessèd be the Holy Trinity and the undivided | Unity.*

Let us give glory to Him because He has shown His mercy | to us.

☐ Therefore My heart is glad, and My whole being re- | joices;*

My flesh also | dwells secure.

☑ For You will not abandon My Soul | to Sheol,

☐ Almighty and everlasting God, You have given us grace to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity by the confession of a true faith and to worship the Unity in the power of the Divine Majesty. Keep us steadfast in this faith and defend us from all adversities; for You, O Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, live and reign, one God, now and forever. ☑ Amen.

OLD TESTAMENT READING

Proverbs 8:1-4, 22-31

Does not Wisdom call? Does not understanding raise Her Voice? On the heights beside the way, at the crossroads She takes Her stand; beside the gates in front of the town, at the entrance of the portals She cries aloud:

To you, O men, I call, and My cry is to the children of man. . . .

The Lord possessed Me at the beginning of His work, the first of His acts of old. Ages ago I was set up, at the first, before the beginning of the earth. When there were no depths I was brought forth, when there were no springs abounding with water. Before the mountains had been shaped, before the hills, I was brought forth, before He had made the earth with its fields, or the first of the dust of the world. When He established the heavens, I was there; when He drew a circle on the face of the deep, when He made firm the skies above, when He established the fountains of the deep, when He assigned to the sea its limit, so that the waters might not transgress His command, when He marked out the foundations of the earth, then I was beside Him, like a Master Workman, and I was daily His delight, rejoicing before Him always, rejoicing in His inhabited world and delighting in the children of man.

GRADUAL

Romans 10:8b, 10

☐ The Word is near you, in your mouth and | in your heart,*
the Word of faith that | we proclaim.

For with the heart one believes and is | justified,*
and with the mouth one confesses | and is saved.

EPISTLE

Acts 2:14a, 22-36

Peter, standing with the eleven, lifted up his voice and addressed them . . .

Men of Israel, hear these words: Jesus of Nazareth, a Man attested to you by God with mighty works and wonders and signs that God did through Him in your midst, as you yourselves know—this Jesus, delivered up according to the definite plan and foreknowledge of God, you crucified and killed by the hands of lawless men. God raised Him up, loosing the pangs of death, because it was not possible for Him to be held by it. For David says concerning Him,

*“I saw the Lord always before Me,
for He is at My right hand that I may not be shaken;
therefore My heart was glad, and My tongue rejoiced;
My flesh also will dwell in hope.
For You will not abandon My soul to Hades, or let Your Holy One see corruption.
You have made known to Me the paths of Life;
You will make Me full of gladness with Your presence.’*

Brothers, I may say to you with confidence about the patriarch David that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is with us to this day. Being therefore a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him that he would set one of his descendants on his throne, he foresaw and spoke about the resurrection of the Christ, that He was not abandoned to Hades, nor did his flesh see corruption. This Jesus God raised up, and of that we all are witnesses. Being therefore exalted at the right hand of God, and having received from the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, He has poured out this that you yourselves are seeing and hearing. For David did not ascend into the heavens, but he himself says,

“The Lord said to my Lord, sit at My right hand, until I make Your enemies Your footstool.’

Let all the house of Israel therefore know for certain that God has made Him both Lord and Christ, this Jesus Whom you crucified.

VERSE (Kantor) Setting by Healy Willan

Liturgical Text

Alleluia! Blessed art Thou, O Lord God of our fathers: and greatly to be praised and glorified forever. Alleluia!

HOLY GOSPEL

John 18:48-59

The Jews answered [Jesus], Are we not right in saying that You are a Samaritan and have a demon?

Jesus answered, I do not have a demon, but I honor My Father, and you dishonor Me. Yet I do not seek My own glory; there is One who seeks it, and He is the Judge. Truly, truly, I say to you, if anyone keeps My Word, he will never see death.

The Jews said to Him, Now we know that You have a demon! Abraham died, as did the prophets, yet You say, ‘If anyone keeps My Word, he will never taste death.’ Are You greater than our father Abraham, who died? And the prophets died! Who do You make Yourself out to be?

Jesus answered, If I glorify Myself, My glory is nothing. It is My Father Who glorifies Me, of Whom you say, ‘He is our God.’ But you have not known Him. I know Him. If I were to say that I do not know Him, I would be a liar like you, but I do know Him and I keep His Word. Your father Abraham rejoiced that he would see My day. He saw it and was glad.

So the Jews said to Him, You are not yet fifty years old, and have You seen Abraham?

Jesus said to them, Truly, truly, I say to you, before Abraham was, I AM.

So they picked up stones to throw at Him, but Jesus hid Himself and went out of the temple.

RECEIVING HOLY COMMUNION AT TRINITY LUTHERAN CHURCH

If this is your first attendance at Trinity Lutheran Church, we kindly ask that you speak with one of the Pastors before receiving the Lord's Supper.

We believe the Lord's Supper to be a participation in the body and blood of Jesus for the forgiveness of sins. We teach that under bread and wine Jesus delivers life and salvation to His church. We confess Jesus desires you to partake in this meal, and He instituted the Holy Ministry to serve His gifts with care.

The holy Apostles warn us in the Scriptures not to receive the Supper to our harm, thereby the Pastors would hope to know who you are and where you are from before they serve you what Christ has given. We are in fellowship with the Lutheran Church — Missouri Synod (LCMS). If you are a member in good standing of one of our churches you can expect to be welcomed to our rail.

If you need help or prayer, would like to learn more about our congregation, or about attending Holy Communion in the future we will be honored to speak with you about these things.

Kidney Donor for Lauri Clapp – Brian's wife, Lauri, has Polycystic Kidney Disease (PKD), and her kidney function is 13% of normal at present. Lauri is seeking a kidney donor. We have not found a compatible donor within our family, and Lauri has been on the kidney transplant list for the past year at UCHealth. Posted on the bulletin board across from the Ad Crucem display is a letter from Lauri with more details. Please see Brian Clapp if you are interested in testing as a potential kidney donor to Lauri. Thank you!

This Tuesday morning at 9:00 Chapel will be held with the order of Matins. Special guest will be Pastor Theodore Krey from the Dominican Republic: <https://www.lcms.org/Krey> Pastor Krey is the regional director for the Lutheran Church Missouri Synod for Latin America and the Caribbean Region. Following Chapel refreshments will be served and then Pastor Krey will tell us about his work, including Christianity in the Dominican Republic, the seminary there, the Spanish language, his family, and more. You are probably aware of the Church's work in the Dominican Republic where Pastor Krey lives, because of David Preus and his family, who were serving there before moving to Romania. This will serve as the first week of Vacation Bible School, with four more weeks following.

With regard to VBS each week will study some basics concerning the Word of God. Week #1 - The Word of God is for all people and all nations. Week #2 - The Word of God is true. Week #3 - The Word of God is powerful. Week #4 - The Word of God is a light for our path. Week #5 - The Word of God accomplishes great things. Each week will begin with chapel. We will sing together. We will learn from the Scriptures. We will do something fun. Vacation Bible school is open to all ages, young and old. If your little ones cannot sit still you will want to attend with them. If they can focus and pay attention you are welcome to drop them off and pick them up. If you would like to help, please speak with Pastor Sherrill. If you are 68 years old and would like to come, please do. If you are 14 and would like to come, please do. If you would like to donate popples please do. Kickball and basketball are always fun. Hiking is a possibility. Lunch out together also a possibility. God's Word: A Guide to Holy Scripture by John Kleinig would be a helpful text, if you would like to read in relation to the happenings of the summer.

This Tuesday will be an abbreviated schedule concluding around 10:45 or 11:00 depending on Pastor Krey's travel schedule. The following weeks will be from 9:00 until 11:30 with extra activities possibilities into the early afternoon.

A Life Team will be starting at Trinity this summer. Please contact Lynn Stuchlik @ 817-501-3249 if interested. We need members as well as those willing to Lead. A Life Movie night will be scheduled in the coming month to gauge interest as well as discuss what we are all about. Stay tuned for more info!

Looking for a way to help? Sunday morning coffee and donuts are provided on a volunteer basis. If you can help, please sign up for an available slot at the welcome desk. You will receive a reminder on the Friday before. All proceeds from coffee hour will be used to help support the various Trinity programs. If you have questions, please contact Linda Sherrill.
